MEXICO LOOKS ON WITH

SOME APPREHENSION All Eyes Are Turned in the Direction of Washington.

Mexico City, Dec. 12.—El Imparcial, the liberal newspaper, in discussing the Venezuelan troubles, sees in the attitempt to try how far-reaching is the shadow-for some threatening, for others protecting-of the Monroe doc-trine. Therefore, all eyes are now turned toward the capital at Washington, for the situation may perhaps be come very difficult for the America government. El Imparcial censure government. El Imparcial censure Germany and England for resorting t arms without having tried arbitra-tion, although it admits that the Castro government is hard to deal with As for Castro, he is said to be Victor Hugo's little Napoleon in a situation where he will try to save his political prestige by war. He stakes all on a single hazard, risking the honor and dignity of his country.

The Mexican Herald says that blood is thicker than water, for the Latins as well as for Anglo-Celts, and that Latin America looks on the present crisis with anxiety. It censures Castro as the representative of Tammany ism in Venezuela.

An Ideal Woman's Medicine.

So says Mrs. Josie Irwin, of 325 So. College St., Nashville, Tenn., of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Never in the history of medicine has the demand for one particular remedy for female diseases equalled that at-tained by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and never during the lifetime of this wonderful medicine has the demand for it been so great as it is to-day.

From the Atlantic to the Pacific, and throughout the length and breadth of this great continent come the glad of this great continent come the grad tidings of woman's sufferings relieved by it, and thousands upon thousands of letters are pouring in from grateful women saying that it will and posi-tively does cure the worst forms of female complaints.

Mrs. Pinkham invites all women who are puzzled about their health to write her at Lynn, Mass., for advice. Such correspondence is seen by women only, and no charge is made.
